DIVIDENDS FIXED BY LAW.

ME Trainmen's Journal calls at tention to the feet that while been nearly doubled, the weight of locomotives and cars has been fully and the speed of trains inequal proportion, the size es has not been increased to and, and there are thousands of miles of track that are scarcely parroled at all. The harvest of death is chargeable to a muancial system that demands dividends in excess of what should be paid in view of what needs to be done to safeguard the lives of trainmen and passengers. It is the old story of human groud writ- = ing its profits in terms of flesh in i blood. No remedy will be found until the amit of dividends is fixed by law Betterments and the safety of em-
